

Standing in Solidarity with the Iranian People

The Loretto Community, a religious community of faith-filled people, stands in prayerful solidarity with the Iranian people who are suffering unjustly in their quest for basic human freedoms.

The Loretto Community is aware of the suffering of the people of Iran and offers strength and hope in their journey toward a just and peaceful Country where all voices can be honored.

Discussion

Put on Twitter and on the website for Nobel Laureates

Decision

June 29, 2009 — The entire group decided to have a small group move this forward by determining how to get the message out.

.