An LG&E natural gas pipeline threatens the integrity of the 16,000-plus-acre forest. This proposed seizure of conservation land ignores easements that have been put in place to protect the biologically diverse land. This threat, should it become a reality, will have an irreversible impact on Bernheim’s wildlife, clean air and water, visitors, and the quality of life throughout the surrounding communities.

Bernheim needs the support of the general public to help eliminate this threat. Please join us:
